TECHNO RITUAL & VISCERAL

BØRDAK builds ritual, visceral techno: hypnotic groove, organic percussion, atmospheres that descend into darkness and return to the light.

Two nights at Localito 3.0 (Castelldefels) mark a project still finding its shape — driven by a constant pursuit of hypnotic states.

Self-taught, raised on the rhythm of Barcelona's Matinée Group and Madrid's Macumba, Heaven, Fabrik — until finding his own path: the ritual and the visceral.

The project is still taking shape — with the set itself treated as a ritual progression:

darkness → tension →
hypnosis → release.
